1. General provisions

These Regulations pertinent to the information policy of the Open Joint Stock Company “Uralkali” (hereinafter the “Regulations”) have been developed in compliance with the requirements of the legislation of the Russian Federation, the Charter of OJSC “Uralkali” (hereinafter “the Company”), the Code of Corporate Governance of OJSC “Uralkali” and other local acts of the Company, taking into account the international practices of corporate governance.

These regulations represent a local act of the Company and establish the rules and modes of approach to information disclosure and also regulate the usage of insider information, establish a list of information and documents that are subject to disclosure to the shareholders, creditors, potential investors and other professional participants in the securities market, state authorities and other interested parties (hereinafter “other interested parties”), and establish the procedure and the terms of information provision and disclosure.

The sole executive body of the Company is responsible for the reliability and completeness of the disclosed information pertinent to the Company and its activities.

The procedure of obtaining information by the Company for the purpose of the implementation of the Regulations and other information as well as the procedure of its disclosure are regulated by the internal documents of the Company.

2. Purpose of these Regulations

These Regulations have been developed in order to serve the following purposes:

- Protect the legal rights and interests of the shareholders of the Company;
- Comply with the requirements of the legislation of the Russian Federation concerning mandatory information disclosure;
- Comply with the requirements applied in Great Britain regarding companies – emitters of securities which serve as basic assets for Global Depositary Receipts (GDR) traded at the London Stock Exchange and listed by the UK Listing Authority (UKLA);
- Provide access to the shareholders, creditors, potential investors of the Company, professional participants in the securities market, state authorities, and other interested parties to the complete and reliable information on the activities of the Company;
- Increase the level of transparency and trust between the Company and its shareholders, creditors, potential investors, professional participants in the securities market, state and municipal authorities and other interested parties;
- Provide the shareholders of the Company with information sufficient for the adoption of informed decisions connected to their right to participate in the management of the Company;
- Improve the corporate governance of the Company;
- Increase the shareholder value of the Company;
- Strengthen the economic ties of the Company with its partners.

2.1. The sole executive body of the Company is responsible for the procedure of preparation and approval of information, its content and the terms of disclosure of information, the system of storage of the documents of the Company, the functionality and safe-keeping of the Company’s information resources.

3. Principles of information disclosure

The Company abides by the following principles when disclosing information:

3.1. Regularity and promptness

The Company regularly provides its shareholders, their representatives, potential investors and other interested parties with information on the Company’s activities by utilizing all types of information tools available to the Company.

The Company promptly informs its shareholders, their representatives, creditors, potential investors and other interested parties of any significant events and facts which affect the economic activity of the Company and which address the interests of the interested parties, and furthermore realizes that the disclosed information is only valuable to its recipients if disclosed in a timely manner.

3.2. Availability of information

The Company utilizes the channels and means of information distribution which provide the shareholders, creditors, potential investors and other interested parties with free and easy access to the information.

3.3. Completeness and reliability of disclosed information

The Company provides the interested parties with information which is reliable and truthful and does not hide any negative information about itself, thus allowing the recipients of the information to have a full understanding of the Company and the results of its activities.

3.4. Maintenance of a reasonable balance between the openness of the Company and the protection of its commercial interests

The information policy of the Company observes the right of the shareholders and investors to receive information on the activities of the Company provided that:

- The information which constitutes commercial, state or other type of secret protected by the law is protected by the Company;
- The rules of distribution of insider information established under these Regulations and other internal documents of the Company are observed.

4. Disclosure of information by the officers of the Company

- 4.1. The task of collecting, preparing and disclosing of the information regarding the Company is discharged by the officers of the Company responsible for information disclosure in compliance with the internal documents of the Company.
- 4.2. - 4.3. The sole executive body of the Company and other officers of the Company (in accordance with their authority granted by the sole executive body) have the right to address the public on behalf of the Company and speak in public on the issues connected with the activities of the Company.
- 4.4. The members of the Board of Directors have the right to publicly express their opinions on the issues reviewed at the meetings of the Board of Directors and on the resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors.
- 4.5. The Chairpersons of the committees of the Board of Directors, the members of the committees and the persons authorized by them have the right to comment and to transfer the information on the decisions adopted at the committee meetings to the interested parties.
- 4.6. The persons listed under Clauses 4.2-4.5 of these Regulations shall be reasonable and responsible when disclosing information and take into account the restrictions set by the legislation of the Russian Federation regarding the disclosure of insider information and information constituting commercial, state and other types of confidential information protected by the law.
- 4.7. The members of the Board of Directors, the members of the Management Board and the individual discharging the functions of the sole executive body of the Company and the management company and its officers must provide the person responsible for the keeping of the List of Insiders of the Company with information on ownership of the securities of the Company, including Global depository receipts, within 14 (fourteen) business days from the moment of election (appointment) to the relevant governing body of the Company or, if applicable, from the moment of execution of a labor or civil contract.

5. Insider information

- 5.1. Insider information – precise and concrete information which was not distributed or provided (including the information which constitutes commercial, official or bank secrets or communication secrets concerning postal transfers of monetary funds or other types of confidential information protected by the law) and whose distribution or provision may significantly affect the prices of financial instruments, the value of foreign currencies and/or goods and which is included in the List of Insider Information ratified by the internal legal acts of OJSC “Uralkali” regulating the procedure of accessing insider information of OJSC “Uralkali”, the rules of its confidentiality and control of compliance with the Federal Law #224-FZ dated 27.07.2010.
- 5.2. The list of persons who have the right of access to insider information, the procedure of accessing insider information, the rules of protection and control of confidentiality of insider information, are established by the internal legal acts of OJSC “Uralkali” regulating the procedure of accessing insider information of OJSC “Uralkali”, the rules of its confidentiality and control of compliance with the Federal Law #224-FZ dated 27.07.2010.
- 5.3. The corporate secretary of OJSC “Uralkali” is responsible for control over compliance with the requirements of the Federal Law “On countermeasures against unlawful utilization of insider information and market manipulation and on amendments to certain legal acts of the Russian Federation” and the legal acts adopted in connection therewith.

Responsibilities of the persons who have access to insider information:

- 5.4. The persons who have the right of access to insider information, including the members of the Board of Directors and the members of the Management Board as well as the person discharging the functions of the sole executive body of the Company, the management organization and its officers, must observe the procedure of conclusion of transactions with securities and must inform OJSC “Uralkali” of the facts of the execution of any agreements which are derivative financial instruments and whose price depends on these securities within 10 business days of the date of conclusion of the relevant transaction in the form established under the internal legal documents of OJSC “Uralkali” regulating the procedure of accessing insider information of OJSC “Uralkali”, the rules of its confidentiality and control of compliance with the Federal Law #224-FZ dated 27.07.2010.

Special aspects of transactions with the securities of the Company concluded by certain categories of insiders.

- 5.5. The insiders of the Company indicated under this Clause:
 - Members of the Board of Directors of the Company,
 - General Director of the Company,
 - Members of the Management Board,
 - Members of the Revision Commission,
 - Head of departments (divisions) – subdivisions of Directorate of Economics and Finance, their deputies, chief accountant, his/her deputy, manager of financial operations,
 - Corporate Secretary,
 - Secretary of the Board of Directors,
 - Head of Department of Internal Audit, Heads of departments – subdivisions of the Department of Internal Audit, having access to the financial results of the Company in the course of discharging their official duties, have the right to conclude transactions with the securities of the Company in compliance with the procedure set forth in this Chapter and with due regard for the imposed restrictions.

- 5.6. Due to the fact that the financial results of the Company comprise information which, if disclosed, may have significant impact on the price of securities of the Company and in order to prevent unlawful utilization of insider information, the Company imposes restrictions on the conclusion of transactions involving the securities of the Company indicated in Clause 5.5 of these Regulations during certain time periods (hereinafter – Closed Periods). Closed Periods are established in relation to publication of the reports/statements prepared in compliance with the Russian Standards of Accounting (hereinafter the RSA) including the publication of the financial results of the Company for three (3) months and nine (9) months of the financial year and the publication of annual and semiannual financial statements prepared in compliance with the International Financial Reporting Standards (hereinafter the IFRS).

5.7. The following Closed Periods for transactions with the securities of the Company are established:

Publication of annual statements: the shortest of the following (a) during a 60-day period preceding the date of publication of the annual statements including the date of publication; (b) from the end of the relevant financial year and until the date of publication of annual statements including the date of publication.

Publication of semiannual statements: from the end of the relevant half-year period until the date of publication of the semiannual statements including the date of publication.
