2. Modifications approved by the Written Resolution

a. Amended Payment Mechanics

Since recent geopolitical events have resulted in a significant disruption of the Notes' payment infrastructure, the Noteholders have agreed and authorised that Uralkali can make any payment of interest or principal or can procure that such payment of interest or principal is made directly (or through the relevant clearing systems or other financial intermediaries) to certain Noteholders, in accordance with the amended payment mechanics as per below (the "Amended Payment Mechanics"):

ii. payments to the Noteholders not referred to in sub-paragraph (i) above would continue to be expressed to be made in accordance with the original terms and conditions of the Notes. The relevant payments under the Loan shall be reduced by the amounts paid in accordance with sub-paragraph (i) above and shall be made to the Issuer by Uralkali subject to and only after all relevant regulatory licenses from the authorities outside the Russian Federation and Russian authorities (the "Competent Authorities") that may be required for such payments to be made in accordance with the original terms and conditions of the Notes are obtained as set out below in this paragraph. In these circumstances, such payments are to be made within 10 Business Days from the date that Uralkali determines, acting reasonably and in good faith, at its sole discretion and to its satisfaction that all relevant regulatory licenses and approvals from the Competent Authorities are procured. The relevant payment obligations under the Loan would be discharged when the funds are debited from Uralkali's Russian bank account.

No delay in making or receiving payments under the Loan and the Notes occasioned by the procurement of such licences and approvals, or payment by Uralkali within 10 Business Days from the date that Uralkali determines, acting reasonably and in good faith, at its sole discretion and to its satisfaction that all relevant regulatory licenses and approvals from the Competent Authorities are procured as set out in the preceding paragraph, shall constitute or be treated as a Relevant Event, Event of Default or Potential Event of Default (each as defined in the Trust Deed) or give rise to any additional or default interest.

The payments made in accordance with the Amended Payment Mechanics shall constitute a good discharge of the relevant payment obligations, with respect to the amount so paid, under the Notes and the Loan.

b. Deferral of April 2022 Interest & Coupon Payment

Uralkali has also obtained the consent of the Noteholders that the interest under the Loan due on 22 April 2022 and the interest under the Notes due on 22 April 2022 shall be deferred to and shall be payable, in accordance with the Amended Payment Mechanics, on 15 September 2022 (the "Payment Date") with no additional or default interest being payable in connection with such deferral to and payment on the Payment Date.
